

countersinks of the retaining screw holes overlapping the slots to receive pivots.

6. (Original) The lockout of claim 2, further comprising:
two edges forming lips with portions having different widths.